DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on June 25, 2003 has been entered.

Claims 1-2, 4-5, 7, 9-18 and 21-25 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-2, 4-5, 7, 9-18 and 21-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 1, the recitation of "the directing element" in line 18 is indefinite. It is not clearly understood whether a single element or each element must satisfy the criteria recited.

Regarding claim 21, the recitation of "the directing element" in line 10 is indefinite. It is not clearly understood whether a single element or each element must satisfy the criteria recited.

A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10

Art Unit: 3743

USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, claim 21 recites the broad recitation "means for imparting ... a swirling motion", and the claim also recites "elongated directing elements ... the first and second rows." which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation.

Regarding claim 22, the recitation of "the directing element" in lines 9-10 is indefinite. It is not clearly understood whether a single element or each element must satisfy the criteria recited.

Regarding claim 23, the claim is inconsistent with claim 1, since only one directing element appears to be recited in claim 1.

Regarding claim 24, it is not clearly understood whether the "tangent line" or the "directing element itself" intersects the "directing element in the second row."

Regarding claim 25, the claim is indefinite, because in filing the supplemental amendment, the claim was not submitted in its entirety. Page amendments are not U.S. practice.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3743

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 21-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Brzezinski (Figures 1-2). Regarding claim 21, the means plus function recitation of “means for imparting ... a swirling motion” does not invoke 35 USC 112, sixth paragraph, because the recitation is further limited by structural definition, such as “elongated directing elements.” MPEP 2182 states, in part:

A claim limitation will be interpreted to invoke 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph if it meets the following 3-prong analysis:

- (A) the claim limitations must use the phrase “means for” or “step for”;
- (B) the “means for” or “step for” must be modified by functional language; and
- (C) the phrase “means for” or “step for” must not be modified by sufficient structure, material or acts for achieving the specified function.

With respect to the third prong of this analysis, see Rodime PLC v. Seagate Technology, Inc., 174 F.3d 1294, 1303–04, 50 USPQ2d 1429, 1435–36 (Fed. Cir. 1999) (holding “positioning means for moving” does not invoke 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph because the claim further provides a list of the structure underlying the means and the detailed recitation of the structure for performing the moving function removes this element from the purview of 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph).

Regarding claim 22, the similar structure of Brzezinski is believed to function in a manner similar to the claimed invention.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-2, 4-5, 7, 9-18 and 23-24 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
